VOL. 4, NO. 27. PRICE FIVE CENTS

SUFFERING IS O'ER

MRS. HATTIE BOSSERMAN DIED AT HER HOME JUST AFTER MIDNIGHT HOUR.

WIFE OF JUDGE J. S. BOSSERMAN

Was 67 Years of Age and Had Been a Resident of Sedalia for 37 Years—Ailing for Months, Bedfast Few Days.

Mrs. Hattie Bosserman, nee Perlines, wife of Joseph S. Bosserman, manager of the cleaning and dyeing department of the Dorn-Cloney Laundry Co., died from Bright's disease at her home, 114 West Sixth street, fifteen minutes after the midnight hour this morning.

Mrs. Bosserman was 67 years of age and had been ailing for months, although she had been bedfast only three or four days. She was perfectly conscious up to the last, and spoke freely with her family and friends, dictating that her remains be kept several days before burial.

Mrs. Bosserman, before her marriage, lived at Bonaparte, Ia. With her husband, she came to Sedalia thirty-seven years ago, and here she had resided continuously since.

Besides her husband, she leaves two children, Mrs. Maudie T. Collins, wife of Dr. M. T. Collins, and John Bosserman, also of this city.

Deceased was a devout member of the First Methodist church; beloved by all who knew her. Her life was characterized by many acts of kindness and charity, and on learning of her demise regret will be extended by all to the bereaved relatives.

Besides her immediate relatives, Mrs. Bosserman is survived by one sister, Mrs. John Randall, of Canton, Ill., who is bedfast with pneumonia and expected to live but a short time.

The Rev. Grant A. Robbins, pastor of the First M. E. church, will conduct funeral services at the family residence at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

WAS HIT BY A STREET CAR

Buggy in Which J. D. Long, a Farmer, Was Riding Today.

J. D. Long, living sixteen miles northeast of Sedalia, was injured and his vehicle smashed in a street car accident at Third street and Osage avenue at 2:10 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Long was riding in a buggy, pulled by a team of horses. He was going south on Osage avenue. A street car, westbound, approached, and the motorman rang the bell, but Mr. Long did not hear it.

The vehicle was on the track when the motorman gave another loud ring, causing Mr. Long to whip the horses to make them move faster. As he did so the car struck the vehicle, badly smashing it and throwing the occupant to the pavement.

Mr. Long was rendered unconscious and sustained a cut on the face and hand.

CONDITION IS CRITICAL

Martin Renkin's Entire Body Paralyzed Except Head.

Dr. H. B. Cole returned at 8 o'clock last night from the home of Martin Renkin, a widely known Pettis county stockman, and a director in the Sedalia National bank, living near Mora, Mo., where Mr. Renkin is lying at death's door as a result of injuries sustained by falling from a wagon Monday morning.

According to Dr. Cole, Mr. Renkin's condition is critical, and his recovery is gravely doubted. Mr. Renkin's spine was injured and his entire body with the exception of his head is completely paralyzed.

Mr. Renkin was resting favorably when Dr. Cole left last evening, although it is feared he cannot recover.

Johnnie McGinley's Quick Trip.

"Johnnie" McGinley, who has been employed on different orange groves near Redlands, Cal., for several months past, returned home on Missouri Pacific train No. 12 at 2:10 o'clock this morning, and will resume his old position in his father's Osage avenue grocery.

"Johnnie" left San Bernardino, Cal., at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, via the Santa Fe railway, and never had a delay on the trip.

End Came at Her Home at 9:15 O'clock Monday Night.

Some two weeks ago Mrs. Varner was taken ill with the measles. No sooner had she recovered from the attack than pneumonia developed. Monday afternoon Mrs. Varner became ill, and, coupled with pneumonia, the illness caused her death at the hour stated.

Besides the husband two children survive.

F. T. Leaming, city engineer, today issued a permit to J. C. PEARY ORDERED TO DUTY

Plans to Lecture in Europe This Spring Are Interfered With.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Commander Robert E. Peary, discoverer of the north pole, has completed his tidal and other observations made for the coast and geological survey in the arctic regions and has been ordered to report to the navy department for assignment to regular duty.

Interferes With Plans.

New York, Feb. 1.—If Commander Peary resumes his duties in the navy department it will seriously interfere with plans that have been made for testimonials in his behalf and with his arrangements to sail for Europe April 27. His friends here, therefore, expressed surprise today on learning that he had been ordered to report for duty.

A national testimony for the commander was to have been held at the Metropolitan opera house Feb. 8, while many other states had arranged similar benefits. He was to attend as many of these as possible east of the Mississippi river.

In going to Europe in April one of his chief desires was to attend the annual dinner of the Royal Geographical society in London, and to address the geographical societies in Paris, Berlin, Rome, Vienna, St. Petersburg, Antwerp and Edinburgh. He was to have remained abroad until June.

INSURGENTS TO HELP TAFT

They Agreed This Morning to Help Push His Measures Through.

Washington, Feb. 1.—That the republican insurgents in the house will support the administration program on the subjects of railroad legislation, conservation of natural resources, postal savings banks and the anti-injunction measures, was the unanimous decision reached at a meeting held last night.

Representatives Gardner, of Massachusetts, and Hayes, of California, were authorized to so inform the president.

Story of "The Third Degree"

The Democrat-Sentinel has made arrangements whereby it is permitted to print the story of "The Third Degree," Charles Klein's dramatic success. This wonderful and powerful play was not written first as a book and then dramatized. It was written for the stage, and it has never been published in book form as a novel. The Democrat-Sentinel, however, has secured the manuscript of a novelization of this play by Ruth Crosby Dimmick, and the complete story will be printed in the Democrat-Sentinel, and no other paper here, in four installments, beginning tomorrow evening. This play is one which has stirred the police departments of the whole country, and has aroused the courts and lawyers, as well as all good citizens. It is a powerful exposure of a system of police inquiry into crime which has been defended as necessary, but which now is shown to be altogether unreliable, because later knowledge of the power of suggestion and hypnotism shows that men may be made to seem to confess to that in regard to which they are entirely innocent. Read the story in the Democrat-Sentinel.

cutting Attorney H. D. Dow issues a warrant for his arrest a Sedalia officer will go after the man.

After cashing the check at Raiffeisen's saloon, Frey cashed another worthless check at an Ohio avenue business house, but shortly afterward the proprietor learned the check was no good and located Frey, who returned the money he had fraudulently secured.

The Noted Singer Is Here.

Mme. Langendorf, the singer, who is to be the attraction at the Sedalia theater tomorrow night, arrived from Los Angeles, Cal., at 10:30 o'clock this morning. She registered at the Antlers hotel at Frieda Langendorf, of Berlin.

HE WORKED A FAKE

SOLICITED ADVERTISING FOR RAILWAY MAGAZINE THAT HAD NO EXISTENCE.

PICKED UP BY THE POLICE HERE

Pleaded Guilty Today to Having Obtained Money Under False Pretenses and Sent to Jail for Fifty-Five Days.

"Put me off the earth."

With these words fresh on his lips J. A. King, alias Lynch, a shabbily-dressed man of about 30, stood before Police Judge H. M. Gresham this forenoon, after pleading guilty to the charge of obtaining money by false pretenses.

"I've been on a protracted spree and am guilty of the charge," King said, when asked as to how he pleaded.

He was given fifty-five days in jail, following the recommendation of Prosecuting Attorney H. D. Dow.

King was arrested by the police at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon, charged with conducting a fake advertising scheme. He represented himself to be a locomotive fireman and solicited advertising at a small price for a proposed magazine, devoted exclusively to railroad work.

He collected small amounts, ranging from $1.65 to $2 from no less than eleven Sedalians to advertise their respective businesses in the magazine, and squandered the proceeds in saloons. That led to his arrest.

At the fair board meeting the directors will arrange the catalogue for the tenth annual fair, also decide on the racing program, arrange the premiums for the different departments and in all probability award the contract for the erection of the woman's building at the fair grounds.

OUT OF 149 MINERS IN MINE EXPLOSION, SOLITARY ONE RESCUED.

TWENTY FOUR BODIES RECOVERED

Very Little Hope is Held Out That Any More Will Be Found Alive—Mothers and Wives Still Have Faith.

Primero, Col., Feb. 1.—The charred and mangled bodies of 24 victims of the explosion which wrecked Primero mine of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company Monday afternoon were brought to the surface early this morning. It is stated that 79 are known to be dead and only one man, of all in the mine, Dio M. Mardino, was rescued alive. One hundred and forty-nine are known to have been in the mine at the time of the explosion and it is feared that few, if any, are still alive. Only the mothers and wives, watching throughout the night around the shaft, and urging on the rescuers with tears and prayers, still hope that the missing still live.

A LULL IN SWOPE CASE

An Inquest Will Not Be Held Before Next Monday.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 1.—Following sensational developments yesterday, a decided lull, which probably will last several days, seemed apparent in the Swope case this morning.

Coroner Swart said the inquest into the death of Col. Swope would not be called before next Monday.

"The inquest will not be held before the specialists make their report, as one of the specialists, Dr. Ludwig Hektoen, will testify at the hearing," said the coroner.

Dr. B. Clark Hyde has brought suits aggregating $500,000 against J. G. Thaxton, executor of the Swope estate, and against the St. Louis Post-Dispatch for $200,000, all for alleged libel.

NEW MAN IS IN CHARGE

Mr. T. D. Hampson Proprietor of the Rector Livery Barn.

T. D. Hampson, of near Fredonia, Kan., who several days ago purchased W. M. Rector's livery stable, on West Fourth street, as chronicled in the Democrat-Sentinel at the time, assumed charge today.

The sale included merely the livery stock—vehicles, buggies, etc.—and not the building. Today Mr. Rector leased to Mr. Hampson the building for a term of two years.

The stable was exchanged for a 337-acre farm, located in Wilson county, Kan., valued at $60 an acre, or a total of $20,220. Mr. Rector giving $6,500 cash to boot in addition to his livery stock.

NOT LESE MAJESTE.

Judge Hough, of the United States district court, declined to subscribe to the doctrine of lese majeste, and dismissed the suit of the government against the New York World.

It will be remembered that this case was the outcome of publications in the New York World of certain phases of the Panama canal acquisition, whereby the government paid $40,000,000 for the property and the rights of the old French company.

President Roosevelt made the matter the subject of a special message to congress, in which he denounced the World and its publisher, Joseph Pulitzer. Mr. Roosevelt also inspired the government's libel suit against the World on the ground that the newspaper had slandered the government in saying disagreeable things about the president's brother-in-law, Douglass Robinson; the candidate for the presidency, W. H.
Taft, and his brother, Charles P.
Taft.

In quashing the indictment the court said:

"If the statute on which the indictment is based be strictly and absolutely construed, it would extend the jurisdiction of the federal courts in a manner which, I may say, I would regard as alarming."

The men whose grievances the government sought to make its own in this case had ample remedy, if they had been unjustly dealt with, in the libel laws of the state of New York and the courts of that commonwealth. The taking over by the government of their individual grievances was a radical innovation and plainly an application of the "big stick" principles.

It was intended as an intimidation of the press of the country, and had the case been sustained it would have been a death blow to a free press.

THE WRONG REMEDY.

Kansas papers say the farmers and stock raisers of that section are up in arms against the meat boycott that has spread with such rapidity within the past few weeks. They declare the boycott will not harm the packers to any appreciable extent, but will work great injury to the stock raisers.

A meeting of farmers and others interested has been held, according to the Kansas papers, and the threat is made that if the boycott continues they will organize a counter boycott, in self-defense, against the products of union labor, inasmuch as the labor organizations are the prime movers in the anti-meat crusade.

There is much truth in the contention of the stock raisers that they and not the meat trust will be the chief sufferers from the anti-meat propaganda. The movement is bound to be of ephemeral duration, at the end of which up will go the price of meat again.

In the meantime the trust will have been given fine opportunities to purchase cattle at extremely low prices, from which it will reap extraordinary profits when the reaction comes. A boycott as a cure for high prices is a poor remedy. An open market for the world's products is the only efficacious and lasting cure for the woes of the consumers. Free trade would give the meat trust a black eye.
Thirty or sixty-day boycotts only make the octopus grin.

IT'S THE TRUST AFTER ALL.

The Philadelphia Inquirer gloats over the fact that in spite of the repeal of the duty on hides it is announced that shoes are to cost more because leather and other materials entering into their manufacture have gone up.

The Inquirer points to this as evidence that high prices are not attributable to high tariff. But, unfortunately for the argument, the Inquirer's article lets the cat out of the bag near the close by the admission that the leather business of the country is controlled by a trust. That's just the rub. The leather trust took advantage of the free hides schedule to buy up all the hides and then to shove the price up beyond former high water mark, thus reaping exorbitant prices and "getting even" with the people, who demanded free hides, at the same time.

So long as there are trusts there will be commercial piracy, and so long as there is a protective tariff there will be trusts. The people will not be relieved of their burdens by the lowering of a duty here and there. The trusts may be smashed, and the way to smash them is to repeal all tariff duties.

Effect of Food on Character.
A scientist has recently been investigating the effect of food, particularly vegetables, on the human character.
He affirms that a diet of carrots ameliorates harshness of character and reduces nervous irritability; peas create joyousness, while turnips have a depressing influence. Cabbage is good for pulmonary complaints, while lettuce acts as a sedative upon the human frame, owing to the opium contained in its milky juice.

Deafness cannot be cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; since cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

WHAT CAUSES DANDRUFF.

Greatest European Authority on Skin Diseases, Says It's a Germ.

The old idea that dandruff is scales of skin thrown off, through a feverish condition of the scalp, is exploded.
Prof. Unna, Hamburg, Germany, European authority on skin diseases, says dandruff is a germ disease. The germ burrows under the scalp, throwing up little scales of cuticle, and sapping the vitality of the hair at the root. The only hair preparation that kills dandruff germs is Newbro's Her-picide. "Destroy the cause, you re-

THE THIRD HOUSE

How does the name of W. J. Crawford strike you for the democratic nomination for mayor at the April election? I do not know of a cleaner, better man in the city than this same Will Crawford. He comes of one of the oldest and best families in Central Missouri, his father, Hon. G. W.
Crawford, of Lamotte, having represented Pettis county most creditably in the legislature.

Will Crawford is a chip off the old block—as honest as the day is long, and his word is as good as his bond.
He has lived in Sedalia since boy-hood, and is thoroughly familiar with its needs. He also has the courage of his convictions, and as the head of the city he would see to it that the affairs of the administration were run on business principles.

He is one of the plain people, without a big bank roll upon which to make a campaign, but if his party should see fit to honor him with the nomination I have every confidence that he would be elected.

There would be neither "wet" nor "dry" talk with Mr. Crawford as the nominee of the democracy, and certainly that is a feature that nine-tenths of the people of Sedalia would be glad to eliminate.

If any person knows of a more available man than W. J. Crawford, speak out, please.—Citizen.

SECOND SLIDE FATAL

Accident Victim Directs Rescue Till Killed in Second Mishap.

New York, Feb. 1.—Although buried under many tons of coal, Nicholas Nedendock superintended the work of his rescue for six hours yesterday, until 100 tons more of coal was precipitated upon him and he was crushed and smothered to death.

When Nedendock fell through a coal chute from an elevator on an East river pier, he was buried under the coal before it could be shut off.

Police men, firemen and dock workmen labored at top speed during the six hours to shovel away the coal from him, conversing with him occasionally and receiving directions as to where to direct their energies.

The end came when the support of a coal bin collapsed and fully 100 tons of coal came down, killing Nedendock and burying two of the rescuers.
These two were dug out, but were badly hurt.

To My Patrons—Thanks.

Rules of Sleep.

Those who think most, who do most brain work, require most sleep, and time "saved" from necessary sleep is infinitely destructive to mind, body and estate. Give yourself, your children, your servants, give all that are under you the fullest amount of sleep they will take by compelling them to go to bed at some regular early hour and to rise in the morning the moment they awake; and within a fortnight nature, with almost the regularity of the rising sun, will unloose the bonds of sleep the moment enough repose has been secured for the wants of the system.

This is the only safe and sufficient rule, and as to the question how much sleep anyone requires each must be a rule for himself—great nature will never fail to write it out to the observer under the regulations just given.

First Cancer Theory.

Crocker's gift of a cancer fund will help out in finding the cause and possible cure of the disease, and then a dying man's wish may bless the world forever. The cancer problem will first have to be worked out in theory.
Some intellect will take all the assembled facts, all that is known to be entirely true about cancer, and then theory will be worked out and will have to agree with every fact, when the cause of cancer will seem so simple that the great wonder will be that there was ever any question about the cause. Again, sometimes a man comes along, thinks out theory and by it shows certain of the accepted "facts" to be false.

Don't Put Birds in Windows.

"Never put a bird in the window," said a bird fancier.

"I rarely go into the street in summer, or even on a mild day in winter, that I do not see unfortunate canaries hung in the windows. Even if the sun is not broiling the brains under the little yellow cap a draft is blowing all the time over the delicate body. People have been told a thousand times that they must not put a bird in the draft, yet how few remember there is always a draft in an open window."

WM. COURTNEY.

Plenty of Good Seats Left.

The seat sale for the Langendorf concert, which opened yesterday morning, has been fairly good up to the present, but not what it should be in a city of this size in welcoming an artist like Mme. Langendorf.

Let all the people of Sedalia fall in line with those that have a ready taken the stand that they will support and show their appreciation of such an artist as we are to hear Wednesday night at the Sedalia theater.

The Musical America, in its issue of January 29, gives the following:
Mme. Frieda Langendorf, who is now appearing in concert in Southern California, gave, during the first week in January, concerts in Los Angeles and Ventura. At both places Mme.
Langendorf was in particularly good voice, and sang in a most effective manner. Despite the size of the Simpson auditorium, in Los Angeles, Mme. Langendorf had no difficulty in arousing the enthusiasm of her auditors. In both concerts she was compelled to add several numbers to the already long program.

Imposed on Author.

For careless generosity, Daudet, the great French writer, could not be outclassed by any man of his time. At one time he used to place on the mantelpiece of his study, at the time when he held his weekly receptions, a bowl which was filled with silver coins. It was understood that if anyone of the bohemians of letters who came to see him needed a little financial assistance he could go to the bowl and help himself. The experiment naturally failed. There were those who came to the receptions only for the sake of the bowl; there were those who put too liberal an interpretation on the mute invitation extended to them. "I used to see fellows pocketing the coins by handfuls," said Daudet, "and in the end I had to abandon the practice."

An Editor's Industry.

In preparing an edition of Shakespeare for the press, Mr. Stevens gave an instance of editorial activity and perseverance which has been seldom equaled. For a period of 18 months he devoted himself entirely to the work, and during that time he left his house every morning at one o'clock, and proceeded, without any regard for weather, to the chambers of a friend in Staple Inn, where a portion of the letter press was lying ready for his revision; so that while the printers were sleeping the editor was awake, and the whole edition of 15 large volumes was completed in the space of twenty months.

The Man Behind the Gun.

The late Admiral Erben had the good fortune or the merit to originate the world-circling phrase, "the man behind the gun." He used it in a speech on the factors of success in naval warfare to emphasize the necessity of having efficiency, preparedness run through the entire personnel.
It was also a reminder that the enlisted men have a good deal more to do with bringing about a victory than always appears in history or official reports. The expression was employed in supplementing the views of Capt. Mahan, and attained circulation at once as epitomizing a whole library of instruction.

PLACE OF PINCHOT

HENRY S. GRAVES TODAY HEADS FORESTRY BUREAU OF UNITED STATES.

HE IS A NATIVE OF MARIETTA, O

Entered Yale College in 1892—Was the Second American to Enter the Profession—Has Made It a Success.Washington, Feb. 1.—Henry S.
Graves, appointed to succeed Gifford Pinchot, removed, today assumed the job as United States forester. Mr.
Graves was director of the Yale college forestry school, and for two years was assistant chief of the old division of forestry under Mr. Pin-chot.The new forester was born in Marietta, O., and brought up in Andover, Mass., where his father was for many years a member of the faculty of Phillips academy.He prepared for college at this academy and entered Yale with the class of '92. In college he played quarterback on the 'varsity football team and gained high rank in scholarship.
He was led to take up the study of forestry by Mr. Pinchot. After a course of graduate study at Harvard, he joined Mr. Pinchot at Biltmore, N. C., where, on the estate of George W. Vanderbilt, the first application of scientific forestry to American conditions was being made.After his work at Biltmore, Mr.
Graves went abroad for technical training in European professional schools of forestry, since no technical instruction in forestry was then attainable in this country. No other American, except Mr. Pinchot, had anticipated him in this step; indeed, he was the second American to enter the profession.Mr. Graves' foreign studies were carried on under the most eminent of the old world foresters, Sir Dietrich Brandis, principal at Munich.On his return to the United States he was associated with Mr. Pinchot in his office as consulting forester in New York City. When Mr. Pinchot became forester of the department of agriculture, in July, 1898, Mr. Graves became his first assistant. He conducted forest explorations and investigations in the west.He left the forest service in 1900 to become the head of the Yale forest school. In the intervals of his work at Yale he made a number of trips in the national forests of the west, sometimes as adviser of the government and sometimes for private study of forestry problems.

at various church gatherings, is sometimes placed in positions that try his patience as well as his tact. Dr. John Kelman, a noted Edinburgh divine, is credited with a clever evasion in just such an embarrassing position. Following a certain missionary meeting of the ladies of his parish several of them had fallen into a more or less heated discussion of the precocious attainments of their several sons.One good lady declared that her eldest had mastered his alphabet at the unusual age of 14 months. Another maintained her child's superiority from the fact that he had been able to read Caesar's "Gallic War" with ease when only eight. A third called upon the reverend gentleman to attest the feat of her youngest son in repeating the Twenty-third Psalm when but two years old as the most exceptional prodigy of them all."Well, ladies," said the doctor, hesitating and smiling, "tis sma use

From 1/2 to 1 1/2 Pounds—Loss to the Consumer Be Much in a Single Year.Guthrie, Ok., Feb. 1.—A statement issued yesterday by Dr. J. C. Mahr, superintendent of the state board of health, says the pure food inspectors of Oklahoma have discovered that millers of Oklahoma and adjoining states are "practicing short weights to a most alarming degree" since the upward move in the wheat market and the attendant increase in the price of flour.

Inspections made of twenty-five brands manufactured by as many millers in Oklahoma and Kansas," says Dr. Mahr, "proved more than half to be under weight, averaging from 1 to 1 1/2 pounds per 48-pound sack.Considering the large amount of flour consumed in this state, a conservative estimate of loss through short weights, allowing one-half pound per sack, would place the total loss at $199,500 per year.A few minutes delay in treating some cases of croup, even the length of time it takes to go for a doctor, often proves dangerous. The safest way is to keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and at the first indication of croup, give the child a dose. Pleasant to take and always

UPHOLDS USURY LAW

Plaintiff Losing Case in Circuit Court Will Appeal.Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 1.—Judge James E. Goodrich, of the circuit court, yesterday held that the usury statute passed by the legislature in 1905 is constitutional. The law permits one to collect interest in excess of 2 per cent per month; also, attorney fees. This is the first time that any court in the state has passed upon the constitutionality of this law. An appeal from this decision will be taken to the state supreme court.The suit was brought by Walter R.
Malloy against Danie H. Tolman, with offices formerly in the Hall building, to collect $6.58 usurious interest.
The plaintiff had borrowed $30 in March, 1907. He paid over $3 interest or nearly 10 per cent per month, before he returned the principal.
There was $6.58 interest remaining that Malloy refused to pay.The money lender insisted that he pay. Malloy was exasperated, and to settle the question for all time, filedsuit in the circuit court to recover the $6.58 in excess of the 2 per cent interest that the law allows.

MR. C. J. DOYLE ASSUMES THE DUTIES OF ILLINOIS STATE FIRE MARSHAL.

CREATED BY LAST LEGISLATURE

Object is Reduction of the Fire Insurance Waste, Which Will Eventually Result in Decreased Rates.Springfield, Ill., Feb. 1.—C. J. Doyle, mayor of Greenfield and attorney for the state insurance department, today assumed the office of state fire marshal. This office was created by an act of the last general assembly, with the following objects:"The object of the law is the reduction of the fire insurance waste which will result in the lowering of rates charged by fire insurance companies."This result will be brought about, first, by prosecutions and convictions for arson, and, second, by the prevention of fires through carelessness in building methods and in the accumulation of inflammable material, which too frequently cause great losses by fire."This law is approved by fire insurance corporations, both stock and mutual, and the office of the fire marshal is to be supported by a tax of one-fourth of 1 per cent of the gross premiums received by fire insurance companies."The fire waste in the United States is very heavy when compared with the same waste in some other countries, and it is confidently expected, both by the governor and the fire insurance companies, that the operation of the law will, in a short time, materially reduce the rates paid for fire insurance in Illinois."P. H. Meyer sells both "S" and Drain of the Middle Men.

Quaint Custom at Gordon Castle.

Gordon Castle is an immense building with a huge square tower and a frontage of 600 feet. The gardens are elaborately laid out and the park contains large herds of fallow and roe deer. The Spey flows through the domain and affords some of the best salmon fishing in Scotland. The duke's deer forest and grouse moors are 18 miles away, up in the hills at Glenfiddich, where there is a fine shooting lodge, at which the late duke and duchess once entertained Queen Victoria. At Gordon Castle a custom prevails that if any distinguished guest has special success with his rod on the waters of the estate a model should be made of the biggest catch and a picture of it painted and hung up over the model. The weight of the fish, the date of its capture and the name of its captor are also indicated, and many of these interesting remembrances appear in different rooms of the castle.—Western Scot.

HOLE TOMORROW?

IF SO, SIX WEEKS MORE WINTER

For the Past Three Years the Ground Hog Has Been "Off" in His Prognostications—Old Rhymes and Traditions Cited.

Tomorrow is the day and date on which the groundhog will decide the meteorological conditions for six weeks to come. If old superstitions surrounding Candlemas day are to be accepted at their face value.

Uncle Sam's weather sharps, however, cast many and severe reflections on their prophetic rival, asserting that for the last three years the groundhog has been all off in his prognostications.

There are many old rhymes and traditions upon which weather prophecies have been based, but none are more widely circulated than those regarding the 2d of February, which in "ye olden time" was known as Candlemas day and was celebrated with a special church service, in which each worshipper contributed a candle.

"Candlemas day, Candlemas day, Half our wood and half our hay," is a well known couplet, which indicated to the British yeoman that the winter was half spent.

"If Candlemas day be fair and bright,
Winter will take another flight;
But if Candlemas day bring cloud and rain,

Winter is gone and won't come again,"

is another version of the same old theory.

The introduction of the groundhog into the traditions surrounding the second of February is an American innovation, and is said to have originated with the negro superstitions of "ole Virginny."

According to their story, the groundhog wakes up from a long sleep and comes out on the 2d of February to see if the winter is over. If the day is clear and bright so that the sun throws a shadow on the snow the groundhog takes fright and returns to his hole for six weeks more. If it is a cloudy day, however, he remain out over night, and as a consequence warm weather commences immediately and the farmers prepare for an early spring.

"Brer Groundhog comes out fer to see the day,

Mr. Sun shows his shadow and skeers
'im away,

Brer Groundhog, he trots 'long back to his hole.

An' fer six weeks more it am goin' ter be cold."

is the versified rendition of this old negro tradition.

MRS. COOPER BRINGS SUIT

Ten Thousand Dollars Asked for Death of Husband.

For the loss of her husband, killed by a Missouri Pacific train, the trial of a $10,000 damage suit brought by Mrs. Jessie Cooper was begun yesterday in Judge W. O. Thomas' division of the circuit court, says today's Kansas City Journal.

Frank Cooper, the victim, was a member of the firm of Cooper & Elmore, cattle commission merchants.
Mr. Cooper was a democratic candidate for mayor of Kansas City about seventeen years ago.

Mr. Cooper was killed one year ago. It was late at night and he was passing through the railroad yards in the West Bottoms. He stumbled in front of an approaching train. His leg was cut off, and shortly afterward died of the injuries.

THEIR LAST APPEAL

Coopers, Who Killed Senator Carmack, Ask for New Trial.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 1.—The last deal in the legal game, the stake of which is the liberty of Col. Duncan B. and Robin J. Cooper, began in the state supreme court here today.

It was the calling for a hearing of the motion for a new trial asked by the Coopers, who have been convicted of murdering former United States Senator Edward W. Carmack, and each sentenced to twenty years imprisonment.

AMUSEMENTS

WOOD'S OPERA HOUSE.

Comedy, pathos, laughter and tears are cleverly blended in Henry D.
Carey's successful American play, "Montana," a story of the west and its people. Theater goes of all classes will find something that will appeal to them in "Montana." A splendid scenic production and a cast of artistic excellence is assured.
"Montana" will appear at Wood's opera house tonight.

An Unusual Play.

The Manchester, N. H. Mirror and American has this to say of "The White Squaw," which will be at Wood's opera house, Thursday, February 3:

"An unusual play presented in an excellent manner, is the attraction this afternoon and evening at the New Park theater. Two productions of the piece were given yesterday, and great satisfaction resulted. The scene of the play is laid in the Michigan woods. The stage settings are realistically Indian, and the dialogue and action are delightfully appealing.

Blood and thunder are absent; no war whoops are heard; no war dances are seen; no scalp is taken; not a shot is fired; but the features of human life are faithfully depicted. Miss Della Clarke, 'the white squaw,' brought out the diversified features of a difficult role ably."

MISSOURI'S WAR CLAIM

A Bill by Senator Warner Would Pay the State 2 Million Dollars.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Senator Warner introduced in the senate yesterday a bill to authorize the secretary of the treasury to investigate the claims of the state of Missouri for something more than $2,000,000.

The same bill has passed the senate twice and failed because it was not considered by the house either time.
The claims are based on the state's expenditures in the civil war for enrolling, equipping, supplying, substituting, transporting and paying troops that were recruited by the state and must red into the government service for the civil war.

The state used most of its public school fund in this service and if the money is returned to the state it probably will go to the same fund.

the sticks of dynamite close to a bonfire. The body of the foreman was blown a distance of 40 feet.

CAUSE OF ECZEMA EXPLAINED

After years of debate medical authorities are now agreed that Eczema and other skin diseases are not seated in the blood, but are caused by myriads of microscopic animals gnawing the flesh just below the epidermis. The patient is perfectly healthy.
It is only the skin that is diseased.
Hence, scientists are now agreed that you must cure the skin through the skin. The medicine must be in liquid form in order to penetrate properly. And we can say with confidence that we have the true remedy for Eczema in our store.

The instant you wash with this soothing liquid you will find the itch relieved. We positively assure you of this. Will you try a bottle (at only 25c), on our recommendation?

A KING TWO YEARS

MANUEL COMPLETED SECOND YEAR OF HIS REIGN IN SPAIN TODAY.

MORE POPULAR THAN FATHER WAS

Despite This Fears Assassination and Changes His Sleeping Quarters Every Night, a Dispatch Says.

Lisbon, Feb. 1.—King Manuel today completed the second year of his reign, which dates from the bloody tragedy of February 1, 1908, when his father, King Carlos, and his brother, Crown Prince Luiz, were assassinated.

The anniversary was marked by a queer mixture of mourning and rejoicing. In the churches of Lisbon, requiem masses were offered for the souls of the dead monarch and prince.

There is no doubt that the youthful Manuel is much more popular than his father ever was. Surrounded by his court dignitaries, he attended a memorial service in the Cathedral of St. Vincent, where the remains of King Carlos and his son lie buried.

King Manuel is now protected more thoroughly than ever before, owing to the recent discovery of a plot to assassinate him and many of his advisers. The palace is now guarded by a small army, and it is said that Manuel changes his sleeping quarters every night.

The plot has been shown by papers seized to be more far reaching than any of its kind uncovered in Europe in years. The ultimate object of the conspirators was the institution of a republican form of government and the driving from Portugal or the execution of all the monarchial leaders.

The men who engineered the assassination of King Carlos and the crown prince were the guiding hands of the newer plot.

One of the worst bores in the world is the man who goes around complaining because he had a chance to get an education and didn't.

SHE WAS ALMOST CRAZY

Pitiful Tale of Rachel E. Mercer, With a Happy Ending—Due to Cardui, the Woman's Tonic.

Herford, W. Va.—"For about four years," writes Rachel E. Mercer, of this place, "I had suffered from female troubles."

"I would have the headache, for a week at a time, until I would be nearly crazy. I had fainting spells and pains in my side. In fact, I was not able to work at all."

"A neighbor recommended Cardui, so I tried it and the first bottle helped me. I continued its use, and now I never suffer with the headache any more."

"I know that Cardui will help every suffering woman. It has done more for me than any medicine I ever took."

While of especial benefit to women suffering from female ailments, Cardui may also be taken by all women, for general weakness, lassitude and debility.

Its action is that of a real tonic, more especially adaptable to women, and its building, strengthening action is so positive, that good results are often noticed, as in the case of Miss Rachel Mercer, after taking the first bottle.

Your druggist will recommend Cardui if you ask him.

NEVER SEE THE SUNLIGHT

Animals That Live Underground Eternally Deprived of the Light of Day.

The underlife of the caves has a world of its own. Animals are born in subterranean caverns hollowed out by streams, develop, reproduce and die while forever deprived of the sunlight. There is no cave mammal except a rat, nor is there a cave bird. There are no animals that require much nourishment.

Grottoes with underground rivers have the most life, an exchange says. Usually the subterranean life resembles the general types of the country. It has entered the cave and become acclimated there, undergoing divers adaptive modifications. So we generally find, in modified forms, the life of our time. But in some caverns there seem to be the remains of an ancient animal life that has everywhere else disappeared from terrestrial rivers and lives only in certain caverns.

The creatures of modern species that have adapted themselves to underground conditions are sharply separated from the light dwellers. The skin is whitish or transparent. The eye atrophies or disappears altogether.

The optic nerve and the optic lobe disappear, leaving the brain profoundly modified. Other organs develop proportionately. Those of hearing, smell and touch become large. Sensitive hairs, long and coarse, appear all over the body.

These changes are produced gradually. In animals kept in darkness it has been possible to see the regression of the eye and the hypertrophy of the other sense organs. With fishes observed since 1900 the absence of light determined a remarkable arrest of growth. Their length was about two inches and their weight less than an ounce, whereas similar fish kept in daylight reached five inches and 2 1/2 ounces.

There isn't anything you can invest a dollar in that is more certain of advance than Missouri land. We have 302 acres of choice prairie land half a mile north of Mora that we can sell for $25.00 per acre if sold by the 15th of February. Terms, $4,500 cash, balance five year 5 per cent interest. This land will pay interest on the investment and sell for $10.00 per acre advance within one year; 100 tons of hay cut off of 30 acres last year. You can cut this up in 80 to 100 acre tracts and sell it for $45 or $50 per acre. Come and see us about this land before the wise investor beats you to it.

Burglar-Proof Safe.

The latest burglar-proof safe is an invention called the carrousel, or round-about safe, which is described in the current issue of the German technical journal Prometheus. It is chiefly designed to baffle burglars who work with an oxygen and acetylene blowpipe.

The roundabout safe is a polygonal steel structure, which revolves freely on ball bearings. It is built into a wall and when the outer door is closed a small electromotor is set in motion and the safe starts revolving ceaselessly and noiselessly on its axis within its stone chamber. Any tampering with its motion causes an alarm bell to ring.

So long as the safe continues revolving the blowpipe can have no effect upon it, as the flame cannot be applied long enough to any particular spot to make an impression.

Thousands are getting rid of indigestion by using Mi-o-na. Here is what one man writes: "I want to speak a good word for Mi-o-na and what it has done for me. I suffered something terrible with dyspepsia and indigestion. It was almost impossible for me to eat anything. Day after day I would go without eating anything. One day I read your ad. in the Bangor Daily News. I got a box, and before it was gone I could sit down to the table and eat anything, thanks to Mi-o-na."—Herbert L. Patterson, Brewer (Bangor) Me., 1909.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are made from the best prescription ever written—they cure to stay cured. They relieve distressed stomach in a few minutes. They are sold by druggists in every town in America, and by W. E. Bard Drug Co. A large box costs but 50 cents. Test samples free from Booth's Mi-o-na, Buffalo, N. Y.

Inns with Literary Associations.

According to the legend, the Spaniards Inn, still in existence, was a rendezvous of Dick Turpin, and it is said that in the stable there he stabled his Black Bess. But the Spaniards has other associations. Its tea garden was certainly the spot that Dickens chose for Mrs. Bardell and her party to take tea in. Jack Straw's Castle is quite as well known. Washington Irving mentions it in "The Sketch Book."

In "The Tales of a Traveler" Irving makes Drabble, the poor scribbler of Grubb street, say that during his rambles he visited Hampstead and occasionally took his dinner at the castle. It is with Dickens, Jack Forster, Macdise and their friends, however, that Jack Straw's Castle is most intimately associated. In the bedroom which Dickens occupied may still be seen the chair in which the novelist used to sit.—Westminster Gazette

A HOT ONE FOR CORBETT

Johnson Says Flat Footed Boxers Made Him Call for Police.

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 1.—Jack Johnson made two definite replies to Sam Langford yesterday. He will post $10,000 now for a match after the Jeffries fight, win or lose, and will in the interim back Joe Jeannette for $2,500 against Sam.

In reply to Jim Corbett's flatfoot criticism, Johnson declared that Sharkey, Jeffries, Fitzsimmons, Jackson, McAniff, Gans, Griffo—all the great fighters fought flatfoot.

"Corbett should speak with reverence of the flat foot," said Johnson. "Flat-footed boxers made him call for the police."

How Prince Ito Solved a Problem.

When Mme. Sada Maccio, the famous Japanese actress, received the news of the assassination of Prince Ito at Mito, where she was playing with her troupe, she burst into tears.

"In my frequent quarrels with my husband," said the actress, "we sometimes asked Prince Ito to judge between us. One day, when we had a more than usually violent dispute at Chigasaki, the prince came in unexpectedly, and I asked him to decide on the question."

"He declined, while proposing the following solution: 'Go down into the garden, both of you, and fight it out like wrestlers. The one that wins will naturally be the one who is in the right.'"

"No sooner said than done! In a trice Kawakami and I were in wrestling trim. My husband was just recovering from a serious illness, and, being weak, I soon threw him to the ground. This amused the prince enormously."—Paris Figaro.

PRESIDENT HILL, OF "M. S. U." MAY NOT GO TO MINNESOTA UNIVERSITY.

CONFERENCE WITH GOV. HADLEY

Governor Was Told That Not a Better Salary, but More Appropriations Are Wanted for the Missouri Institution.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 1.—During a conference last night between Governor Hadley and Dr. Ross Hill, president of Missouri university, the latter, it is understood, promised the governor he would not resign to accept the presidency of the University of Minnesota at a salary of $10,000 a year, provided a more liberal support of the University of Missouri's promised.

Dr. Hill, it is said, told the governor the question of salary was not involved, and that whether he would remain in Missouri depended upon the support given him in his work.

He said he was discouraged by the action of the legislature last winter in failing to make appropriations to meet the demands of the institution. Governor Hadley believes Missouri should keep Dr. Hill, and that inducements, not in the nature of a larger salary, but more ample appropriations for the maintenance of the university he assured him.

Sixth District Today Is Choosing a Congressman.

Judge James Suddith, of Warrensburg, who was a candidate for the nomination for congressman in the Sixth congressional district, against Senator B. C. Dickinson, of Clinton, who received the nomination and who has made an aggressive campaign, was in the city this morning, on his way home from Windsor.

Judge Suddith, when asked for his opinion on the election being held today, to fill the unexpired term of the late Congressman D. A. DeArmond, said:

"In my opinion a three-fourths vote will be cast in today's election, and Senator Dickinson will be elected by nearly the normal democratic majority."

"When I left Windsor this morning there was much activity being displayed, and it resembled a regular election, and as this was not a very strong district for Senator Dickinson, it can be taken as a very good indication of what the result will be in the entire district. From the very best information I could obtain before leaving Windsor, the senator's lead over his opponent, Editor Paul Griffith, of Greenville, will be nearly as large as that maintained by Congressman DeArmond over his opponent at the last election."

City and Railroad Bonds Not to Be Accepted in Future—Strengthen the Market for United States Bonds.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Under an order issued by Secretary MacVeagh, state, city and railroad bonds will not be accepted by the treasury department as security for deposits of public money in banks after today.

This order is expected to strengthen the market for United States bonds through the requirement for their purchase by banks to be placed against this class of deposits.

Under an act passed in March, 1907, the secretary of the treasury is required to make annual announcement of the bonds which will be accepted to secure deposits of the government. Banks having bonds deposited as security for deposits other than indicated in the order quoted below will be required to replace them today. These will be accepted: "United States, Philippines, Porto Rican and District of Columbia bonds at par. The "Katy" Makes a Fast Run.

The Missouri, Kansas and Texas made a fast run from Fort Worth with the Lambaridi Grand Opera company, says today's Kansas City Journal. The special train carrying the 108 members of the company left Fort Worth Sunday morning at 8 o'clock and arrived here at 10:15 o'clock the same evening.

The company stopped at McAlester for dinner, and this, with the time out for stops, reduced the actual running time to twelve hours and fifteen minutes. The distance from Fort Worth is 510 miles.

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 306.

Hundreds and hundreds of families in Sedalia are made "slow and poor pay" because of the saloon, and yet, they never spend a cent in a saloon.

For instance, a man is a carpenter, and does not get work that he would get if a million dollars a year did not go over our saloon bars. How many families would want a BETTER home, and be ABLE to pay a better rent were it not for the saloon holding them down to pauperism. Men have the money to build them homes, and WOULD, if they had the money to pay rent, but to support the saloon and the home, they can't do it, and as a result, look at their "shacks," and then wonder why collections are slow and bad. Study this principle and see its far-reaching results. It is simply appalling.

WOMEN IN AUTO KILLED

R. A. Talbot, of New York, Fatally Injured By Denver Car.

Denver, Feb. 1.—James A. Baker, of Attleboro, Mass., and two women whose identity is unknown were killed, and Russell A. Talbot, of New York, was injured fatally last night when a trolley car crashed into the automobile in which five persons were riding. Morris Mayer, owner of the machine, suffered only minor injuries.

Baker and Talbot were traveling men and were guests of Mayer. All efforts to ascertain the names of the women were unavailing.

The machine in which the party was riding was speeding along South Broadway at a furious rate, running between the street car tracks. Cars were approaching from both directions, and in an effort to avoid the northbound car Mayer tried to cross the tracks. The machine skidded on the rail and it is supposed that Mayer instinctively set the brake to keep from going over.

The southbound car crashed into the machine from the rear, completely demolishing it. Talbot and Baker with one of the women, were in the back seat. The woman's head and body were crushed to pulp, and Baker had a number of bones broken. Both were dead when picked up.

Talbot suffered severe internal injuries and was unconscious when help arrived. The other woman who was sitting beside Mayer, was thrown to the ground and her skull crushed. Mayer was tossed to one side and was but little hurt.

"HELLO, TAFT," IS HEARD

President Enjoys Seeing Strangers, Stares and Second Looks.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Talking as if he were merely a friend who had dropped in for a short chat, and not the president of the United States, William H. Taft yesterday revealed much of his personal side to the newspaper men of the national capital at an informal reception given him at the National Press club.

Prepared for a stroll along Pennsylvania avenue and several other thoroughfares of the city, which he took after he left the club, the president declared he found much pleasure in walking and looking in the shop windows.

He said he enjoyed seeing some person give him a long look and then look away, while the next person would give a second look and then poke his companion in the ribs, "and in the dignity paid by Americans to high office, call out, 'Hello, Taft.'"

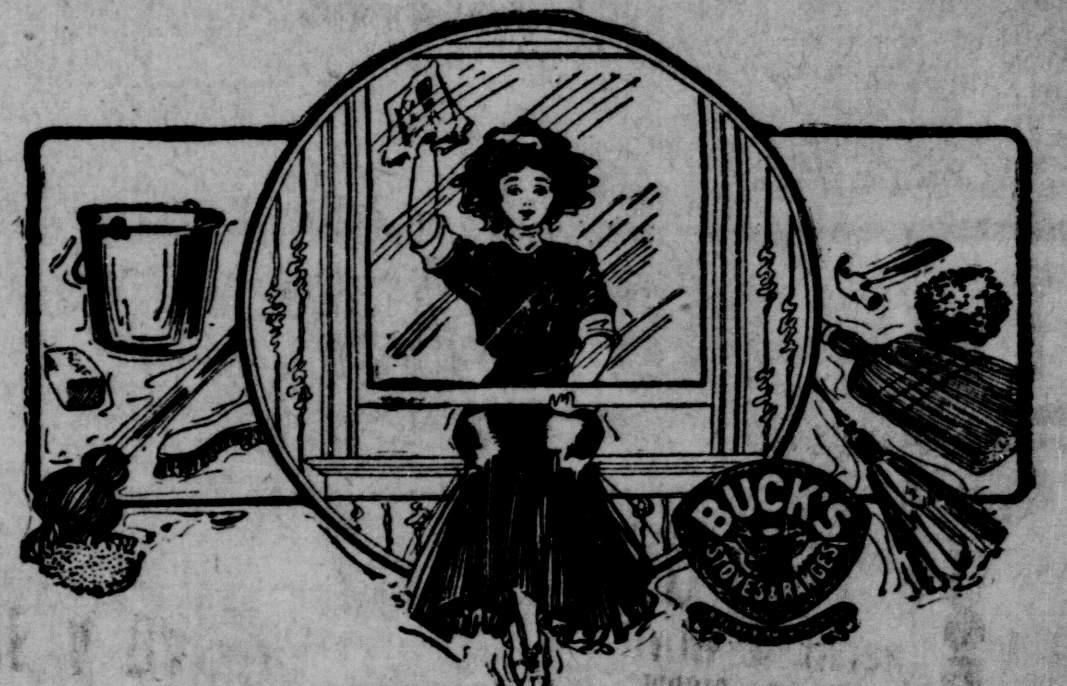

First Said by Jim Fisk.

The once current phrase, "Gone where the woodbine twined" (a more esthetic form of "up the spout") is credited to James Fisk, Jr., friend of Jay Gould and fellow despoiler of the Erie railroad. Truly the colloquialisms of to-day are not always as brand new as they seem and their origins are often picturesque if not interesting.

TABLE EXPENSE

Most things bought for the house last a long time, and it usually pays to look at the quality more than the price.

In groceries, as in the other things, quality counts as much as price. This can easily be proven, by close watch upon the table expense for a month. Good grades of groceries make little waste, and the waste is worth more consideration than an occasional extra penny or two.

Here is a selection of staple goods, at prices that are actual economy.

ACCUSED WOMAN CRIES IN COURT

Breakdown Comes When Endearing Letters Written By Her to Cooke Are Read in Blackmail Trial.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 1.—Eighty-four thousand dollars was the price Chas. L. Warriner, defaulting local treasurer of the Big Four railroad, paid for a woman's silence, according to his testimony yesterday.

Fearing exposure of his shortcomings, he gave Mrs. Jeanette Stewart Ford an average of $1,000 a month for seven years, the payments stopping only when the exposure came from other sources November 2, last.

Such was the substance of the startling testimony which Warriner gave yesterday at the trial of Mrs. Ford on a charge of blackmailing him.

Mrs. Ford sat through the recital with immobile countenance. Twice only during the day did she allow her feelings to show. The first instance came before Warriner appeared, when Judge Swing ordered her two children removed from the courtroom. They had entered with their mother, but when attorney for the prosecution objected the two were sent to another room in charge of a nurse.

Mrs. Ford's second ordeal came near the end of the proceedings. Just before the adjournment of court letters were introduced by the state which she had written to Edgar S.

Cooke, formerly an employee in the Big Four railroad offices here. The missives mentioned visits she had made to "W" and were couched in the most endearing terms.

Her infatuation for Cooke was clearly revealed in them, and as her declarations of affection were read to the jury, Mrs. Ford shook and tears streamed down her cheeks.

Warriner testified that the initials in the letters referred to him.

Warriner said that he sent stipulated amounts of $250 each week to Mrs. Ford at the Riverview hotel, Chicago, in currency, never in checks, and usually in care of her maid. At one time he paid $1,000 in one payment for her boy's schooling, he said.

"Last September I told her that her demands must be kept down," said Warriner, "as it had come to a time when I could not meet them. I said if she would go to New York and get a flat I would try to furnish her with money to meet expenses. During September of last year, her reason for coming to me for money, she said, was because she was protecting me by not making public the Big Four shortage."

VISIT OF THE KING

HIS MAJESTY CRITICISED BE-CAUSE OF BRIEF SOJOURN

BEAUTIFUL ESTATE AT BALMORAL

It Is a Nightmare to King Edward,
but His Mother, Queen Victoria, Liked It Better Than English Palaces.

International News Service.

London, Feb. 1.—There have for some time been mutterings of discontent in Scotland at the very short duration of the king's visit to his Scottish estate at Balmoral, and at the very few state visits which his majesty has paid to the great cities "over the border." These remarks have been brought to the ears of the king, who means next year to spend much more of his time in Scotland.

The late Queen Victoria was far more fond of her Scottish home than she was of her English palaces, and she made no secret of her preference. But Balmoral was a nightmare to the king. It was cold and bleak. It had no modern conveniences, and the furniture and the hideous tartan hangings were a perpetual eyesore to him.

Much has been done to Balmoral to make it up-to-date and comfortable, but a great deal more will be accomplished in the way of improvement by next autumn, when the king will make a stay longer than usual.

Elevators are to be constructed to convey the guests to the different floors, and the kitchen and service arrangements are to be completely modernized. The new motor garage, which the king built last year, is to be enlarged and an entirely new suite of apartments is to be provided for Queen Alexandra, whose present suite was formerly occupied in the late queen's time by Princess Henry of Battenberg.

The cost of the improvements will be considerable, but it will not be provided by the government, but out of the king's private purse, as Balmoral, like Sandringham, is his majesty's private property.

Springfield, Mo., Feb. 1.—Mid-year examinations began at Drury college this morning and most of the students will burn the midnight gas for a few nights in order to "crum" as much as possible. The examinations this

A creditable class grade will be sufficient to let them through without taking more examinations at the close of the year. The college honors will be announced a short time after the papers are graded.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 1.—New prison regulations go in effect at the state penitentiary today. Prison stripes will be a thing of the past for convicts who behave themselves properly, as new uniforms of light blue, with caps to match, have been substituted. Guards will be compelled to wear a distinctive uniform. Cloth for the guards suits was purchased by the state and the suits were made by convict labor and sold to the guards at cost.

NEW LAW IN EFFECT

That Pertaining to Vital Statistics in Missouri.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 1.—The vital statistics law goes in effect today. This is a law passed by the last legislature, requiring that every birth and death must be properly registered. The state board of health has appointed 912 local registrars, whose duties will consist in making reports of all births, deaths and contagious diseases to Dr. Frank B. Hiller, secretary of the state board of health at Jefferson City.

For each birth and death reported a registrar will receive 25 cents. The only records of this kind that have been kept heretofore in the state are in St. Louis and Kansas City. It is the intention to use these records in court when called for.

Binghamton, N. Y., Feb. 1.—Application for a change of venue will be heard today in the case of the Knapp brothers, charged with criminally receiving deposits in their private bank at Deposit, knowing the bank to be insolvent.

Attorneys for the former bankers allege that a fair trial is not possible in this county in the present state of public feeling.

The liquidation of the Binghamton Trust company, of which Charles J. Knapp was president, was necessitated by the failure of outing Publishing company, of which the Knapps were backers, and the Knapp brothers' private bank.

THE SUM OF 32,000 POUNDS WAS AT STAKE IN COURT AT

AWARDED TO AN ENGLISH WOMAN

Christians Living in Turkey Laid Claim to One-Half of the Estate, But Court Did Not Uphold Contentions.

International News Service.

Paris, Feb. 1.—A curious will suit in which 32,000 pounds was at stake was decided the other day in the Paris courts in favor of an English woman, Mrs. Legge.

Mrs. Legge is the daughter of a man named Selim Faris, who lived in Turkey, and died at San Remo in January, 1908, leaving a will by which everything he possessed became the property of Mrs. Legge.

She took possession of that part of his property which was banked in England, but distant cousins—Christians living in Turkey—laid claim to half of Mr. Faris' fortune, on the ground that he was a Turk, and that by Turkish law no woman could inherit as long as there were male relatives.

It was proved in the courts that Mr. Faris had changed his religion several times, and that he called himself a Turk in Turkey and an Englishman in England.

The French courts found for Mrs. Legge, on the ground that her father had lived in London as an Englishman, had become a member of an English club, educated his daughter as an Englishwoman, married her to an Englishman, and made his will in English as an English subject at the British consulate at San Remo.

TO EXIST, $850 A YEAR

A New York Family Can't Live on Less, a Report Says.

New York, Feb. 1.—The lowest amount on which a family can live in simplest decency in New York is $850

a year, according to the estimate of special committees from the labor unions which have been investigating the increased cost of living.

This, the report says, is an increase of $100 in two years. It costs a fifth more to live in the metropolis, the investigators add, than in large cities of the middle west.

The above dispatch should have been made plainer. What constitutes a family? is the important question. If it requires $850 a year to keep a husband and wife in New York, how much would it require to keep husband, wife and ten children?

SALOON MAN WELCOMED

To Church to Get Certificate So He Could Reopen Place.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 1.—Marion L. Cummins, a saloon keeper, received a warm welcome from the pastor and congregation when he attended the Columbia Avenue Methodist church that he might obtain a certificate from the pastor that he had attended church so that he could reopen his saloon. His license had been suspended by Mayor Shank until the saloon keeper received such a certificate.

Indianapolis was as "dry" Sunday as it probably has ever been before. Three saloon keepers were arrested for keeping open.

THE ELECTION TODAY

It is in Progress in Sixth Congress-sional District.

Clinton, Mo., Feb. 1.—The battle of ballots is on in the seven counties comprising the Sixth congressional district today, as the voters are selecting a successor to the lamented David A. DeArmond, who was burned to death at his home in Butler in November. Senator C. C. Dickinson, of this city, is the democratic nominee and probable victor in the contest being waged. The republican nominee is Phil S. Griffith, of Dade county, editor of the Vidette at Greenfield and well known in newspaper circles.

The election in the Sixth Missouri district has aroused national interest, both on account of the prominence of the late DeArmond and also as being the first expression of the people where the direct issue is the present policy of the Taft administration and Cannonism. In the late election Henry county gave a democratic majority of 755 and the district went democratic by 1995.

The Sixth district is composed of Bates, Cass, Cedar, Dade, Henry, Johnson and St. Clair counties and has not elected a republican congressman since the state was re-districted in 1893. The campaign for today's election has been vigorously waged by both political parties, and speakers of national prominence have been stamping the district.

MESSAGE OF PEACE

IT IS BROUGHT TO AMERICA
BY BARON DAIROKU KIKUCHI, OF JAPAN.

DELIVER AN ADDRESS TONIGHT

The Great Japanese Educator Was Selected as the Best Person to Enlighten Us About Japan's Attitude.

New York, Feb. 1.—As the official bearer of a message of peace and good will from Japan, Baron Dairoku Kikuchi, president of the Imperial University, will address the Civic Forum at Carnegie hall tonight.

The great Japanese educator was selected as the best person to enlighten America about Japan's attitude and it was at the suggestion of the Japanese of this city, sent through the Civic Forum, to Count Komura, minister of foreign affairs, that Kikuchi was designated. As an incidental purpose, he will investigate the methods of American universities.

After the misunderstanding on the Pacific coast, that strained relations between Japan and America, the Japs in this country looked to their countrymen in New York to readjust the point of view.

There were many conferences in the Nippon club, and Dr. Jokichi Takamine, an officer, suggested to Consul General Kokichi Midzuno that Japan send one of its learned men to this country to tell of the newer Japan and the friendliness that existed there for Americans. An unofficial ambassador was required. He must be a man who could grasp the American viewpoint and talk from that basis.

As a result, men in the Civic Forum, which body includes President Taft, William Jennings Bryan, Archbishop Ireland and William Dean Howells as vice presidents, were asked to send the unofficial plea for the envoy of peace.

USED WORDS HE UNDERSTOOD

Clever Idea of Lawyer That Won Sailor Jurymen to His Side of the Case.

It was a clever lawyer in a Boston court recently who took advantage of the nautical knowledge he possessed to work upon the mind of a jurymen who did not seem to show much comprehension of a case of suing a street railway for damages.

The dull member was an old sailor, who, though doubtless very keen of perception along some lines, was nevertheless rather slow in his understanding of the points involved in the case being tried, says the New York Journal. The lawyer noticed this and made his strike with this particular man. Approaching the jury box, he addressed himself to this one jurymen and said:

"Mr. Jurymen, I will tell you how it happened. The plaintiff was in command of the outward bound open car, and stood in her starboard channels.
Along came the inward bound closed car, and just as their bows met, she jumped the track, sheered to port, and knocked the plaintiff off and ran over him."

The sailor was all attention after this version of the affair and joined in a $5,000 verdict for the injured man.

BLADDER AND URINARY MISERY GOES

Pape's Diuretic Makes Kidneys Act Fine Ending Bladder Trouble—Just a Few Doses and the Most Severe Backache or Urinary Misery.

No man or woman here whose kidneys are out-of-order, or who suffers from backache or bladder misery, can afford to leave Pape's Diuretic untried.

After taking several doses, all pains in the back, sides or loins, rheumatic twinges, nervousness, headache, sleeplessness, inflamed or swollen eyelids, dizziness, tired or worn-out feeling and other symptoms of clogged, sluggish kidneys simply vanish.

Uncontrollable urination especially at night, smarting, discolored water and all bladder misery ends.

The moment you suspect the slightest kidney or bladder disorder, or feel rheumatism pains, don't continue to be miserable or worried, but get a fifty-cent treatment of Pape's Diuretic from your druggist and start taking as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine, at any price, made anywhere else in the world, which is so harmless or will effect so thorough and prompt a cure.

This unusual preparation goes direct to the cause of trouble, distributing its cleansing, healing and vitalizing influence directly upon the organs and glands affected and completes the cure before you realize it.

A few days' treatment of Pape's Diuretic means clean, healthy, active kidneys, bladder and urinary organs—and you feel fine.

Your physician, pharmacist, banker or any mercantile agency will tell you that Pape, Thompson & Pape, of

MUCO-SOLVENT—WHAT IT IS AND WHAT IT DOES

It had its origin in the private formula of a physician of a large practice, who did not lose a case of diphtheria in twenty years.

As a specific for preventing and arresting the development of CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, DIPHTHERIA, COUGHS, COLDS AND MEASLES, it has never been equaled. In every community where MUCO-SOLVENT has been adopted it arrested fatalities and quickly stamped out the epidemics, many of which were, before its adoption, among the most serious ever recorded. MUCO-SOLVENT wins its victories by destroying the germs and microbes of disease.

CELEBRATE MARDI-GRAS

Progressive Union's Big Buyers' Convention Side Attraction.

New Orleans, Feb. 1.—With next week's great Mardi Gras celebration, which promises to be the "greatest ever," as an added attraction, the Progressive Union's Big Buyers' convention was opened today and will continue fifteen days.

Merchants from all over the south are already arriving in the Crescent City to do their spring buying, and the jobbers and wholesalers will "pay the bill" and give them the time of their lives.

These buyers' conventions and the constant activities of the merchants and manufacturers' committee of the Progressive Union has already wrought a striking change in the trade situation in New Orleans, in territory lying beyond the usual reach of merchants here.

Old Gentleman Had Mixed Up In Matter Belonging Exclusively to Aunt Maria.

"I don't know what we're a-coming to," said Uncle Bela Cummings, as he surveyed a sheet of thin paper which had accompanied a periodical sent to Aunt Maria by their daughter in New York.

"What's the matter now?" asked Aunt Maria, tranquilly. "What are you doing with that sheet of paper, Bela, and where are your specs?"

"I'm hunting for 'em now," said Uncle Bela, excitedly, "and I suppose this here," shaking the paper, "is a new map, and the way it's cut up by the railroads is a shame and a disgrace! I don't see how there's room left for a decent house-lot in the whole state!"

"Well, now, find your specs, and read what it says," counseled Aunt Maria, abandoning her socks to look over Uncle Bela's shoulder. "Perhaps they're only prospecting the roads as yet; maybe they won't be built any more's some of these western towns that's laid out all as pretty on paper, and nowhere else. Read what it says, father!"

"It says," faltered Uncle Bela, with a confused expression on his countenance, "Pattern of skirt and jacket on page 372. Pattern of evening waist on page 374. Pattern of—"

"Here, you give it to me!" commanded Aunt Maria; and she departed to spread Uncle Bela's supposed railroad map on the table, while he was left to ponder on the wonderful works of map and woman.—Youth's Companion.

When the blood becomes overcharged with uric acid it continually grows weaker, more acid, and poorer in nourishing qualities. The nerves, muscles and joints, instead of receiving their necessary nutriment from the circulation are gradually filled with the sharp uric acid impurity with which the circulation is loaded, and the pains and aches of Rheumatism are the natural result. No amount of rubbing, or the application of external medicines can have any direct and curative effect on the blood; the most to be expected from such treatment is temporary relief from the pains and aches. There is but one way to cure Rheumatism, and that is to cleanse the blood of the uric acid impurity. S. S. S. S. Mass Meeting No. 3
Counting the Cost
What Episcopalians, Catholics and Lutherans Must Surrender

Correspondence Democrat-Sentinel.
Brooklyn, N. Y., Jan. 20.—The third meeting for the consideration of Church Federation was held today. The spacious Brooklyn Academy of Music was crowded with Christian people of all denominations to attend the third of the series of four meetings called by the People's Pulpit association. Pastor C. T. Russell, of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, addressed the large audience for an hour and a half. The deep interest felt was evidenced by the profound silence, as well as by the eagerness of face. The text was the same as on the two previous occasions, "Say ye not, A Federation, to all them to whom this people shall say, A Federation; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid" (Isaiah viii, 12). The speaker said:—

We meet today to consider what sacrifices would need to be made in the interests of Federation by the three oldest denominations of Christianity. Of these Lutherans have least to surrender. Their tenacity for the Word of God they may still maintain, even though others of the federated bodies might more and more abandon the Holy Scriptures, under the leadership of the universities, colleges and seminaries teaching Higher-Criticism-Infidelity and the Evolution theory. The federation nevertheless would still permit Lutherans and others to love and reverence the Word of God and yet be in fellowship. Almighty God, the Son of God and the Holy Spirit, firmly believed in by Lutherans, would all be acknowledged with more or less of mental reservation by all the denominations associated in the Federation. Nothing along these lines would need to be abandoned. Even Luther's plea of consubstantiation in the Eucharist may be held without objection. Even the honor of being the first denomination of the Reformation might still be held. We conclude then that Lutherans would not be required to sacrifice anything.

Some Things in Common.
Episcopalians and Catholics have some things in common. They each claim to represent the original apostolic church. They each claim (through their bishops in the laying on of hands) apostolic authority. Their common claim is that all other denominations of Christians whatsoever are false churches without Divine authority and hence not to be recognized or tolerated. Accordingly no minister of another denomination would be permitted to preach either in a Catholic or an Episcopalian pulpit. And if by mischance such a circumstance should occur it would be considered necessary to purge the sared spot by a kind of re-consecration. From the standpoint of these denominations all others are heretics; but, they say, not willingly so, but ignorantly so.

Here note the fact that cleavage is in process amongst Episcopalians. A minority, termed high-churchmen, are gradually separating Roweward, while the majority are sharing the sentiments of other Protestants, to the effect that the matter of "apostolic succession" is probably less important than their forefathers supposed. For the purposes of this discussion we may without offense ignore the high-church minority and say that the Scriptures which plainly foretell the perfecting of Church Federation indicate that it will include Episcopalians, but will not include Catholics. Nevertheless the intimation is that while the Federation will not be a Protestant one, it will not be anti-Catholic. On the contrary the two great systems, Catholic and Protestant, will fraternize and co-operate along various lines—especially in the manipulation of social and political influences.

The breadth of the Episcopal creed will not call for particular sacrifices in Federation, if only their pride on the subject of apostolic succession can be satisfied. They are all prepared to admit that no particular wisdom or holiness has been communicated from generation to generation, from bishop to bishop and from bishop to lower clergy through the laying on of hands. They are willing to admit that there have been men as wise and others as foolish outside as inside their Communion. They are willing to admit that no greater light upon the Word of God and its meaning has come down to humanity through its channels than through outside channels. They are willing to admit that their clergy have no more of Divine Grace and Truth, Wisdom and Power than have others of God's people, both clergy and laity, outside their boundaries. Hence they are willing, nay, anxious, for Federation, and ask only that their "face be saved," by some acknowledgment of the long idolized thought that ability to expound the Scriptures and the Grace of God in expounding them could be had only through their channel. They have no desire to prove their claim to superior grace and truth by measuring swords of the Spirit with other ministers.

Up to the present time Episcopalians decline to be parties to the Federation unless their special claim be in some sense or degree recognized. Pride says it would never do to retract now all that the denomination has stood for in separation for centuries. They would urge Christians of the other denominations, especially the clergy, to consider the advantage which would accrue to the Federation by having all Protestant ministers accept their ordination. They do not claim that it would make them wiser or better men, nor more efficient teachers, either of truth or error. But they do claim that it would give them an authority in the eyes of the people and give color and reasonableness to the Federation of many churches with discordant creeds posing as one church in the Federation arrangement.

The argument is, "The common people, the laity," are disposed more than ever to think for themselves on religious subjects and to study the Bible for themselves. If, therefore, as ministers, you desire to hold the people in check so that they shall not think for themselves you would do well to concede the claim of apostolic succession—that no one is permitted to interpret or teach the Bible except those who have received apostolic benediction. It was disregard of this claim of apostolic benediction which led to freedom of thought on religious subjects and ultimately led to the formation of the various sects. You should now seek to restrict further investigation of the Bible and further interpretation of it by accepting our theory, by permitting us to grant you recognition in some simple form of the rights of apostolic authority through our bishops. If you do not do so you will more and more lose your hold on the people, for we are

Free Laxative For Babies

Just as a mother is careful about the food she gives a child, she should be careful about the kind of a laxative she gives it to move its little bowels. Not all remedies for this purpose, no matter how good they may be, are suited to a child.

You should especially avoid pills and tablets and powders for children, which are difficult to digest and children find it hard to swallow them. And purgatives too violent for the young. Better give it a gentle though effective laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is pleasant to the taste and absolutely does not gripe. A fifty cent or one dollar bottle can be bought of any druggist, and if you give a small dose, as the directions call for, before and after breakfast, you will have a cheerful, happy child in a few hours.

This remedy has been sold for almost a quarter of a century and thousands of families know about it, but if you have never used it, and you would like to make a test of it before buying it in the regular way, send your name and address to the doctor for a free sample bottle. In this way, without expense, for any mothers have learned of a way of curing children of the little evil of life, and thereby avoiding the graver diseases.

In the family of Martha Emmer of Yorkville, S. C., and J. S. Bowyer of Jamestown, Colo., no other laxative but this is used. It is a remedy for colic, flatulency, and other troubles of the most robust and mild enough so that women, children and the aged can use it. You will find nothing better for constipation, indigestion, sick headache, sour stomach, flatulency and other troubles of the liver and bowels than this Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Let it be your family remedy from today on and we assure you you will have a healthy household.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may want for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For further request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 509 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

coming more and more to a time of individual thought on every topic.

The Scriptures intimate that this argument will ultimately prevail and great Protestant denominations be thus vitalized and, in co-operation with Catholicism, for a short while dominate Christendom socially and politically, crashing out individual thought and negating and black-listing all religious teachers outside the Federation and its Catholic Ally. From this standpoint the Episcopal system will lose nothing, but even be a gainer of prestige through the Federation.

What Catholics Would Surrender.

For Catholics to join the Federation would signify the surrender of a great deal, and yet, in the light of the Twentieth century, surely much could be surrendered without any sacrifice of manhood—merely with the sacrifice of a little pride. For the Church at Rome to federate with the Protestant churches would mean that she ceased to protest and that she relinquished her peculiar claims:

(1) That she alone is the Church of Christ and has authority to instruct;
(2) That she is more than a church or prospective kingdom—that to her has been committed by God the rulership of the world in respect to all matters temporal and spiritual, hence that she is the reigning Kingdom of God.

(3) That her pope is the authorized representative of Christ, anointed and commissioned of God to fulfill all the prophecies of the Scriptures respecting the reign of Christ, His Millennial Kingdom, etc. This claim of Papacy that the pope's reign is de facto the reign of Christ is expressed in the declaration that he is the vicegerent of Christ—the one reigning instead of Christ.

(4) The doctrine of trans-substantiation—that by the blessing of a priest the ordinary bread and wine are transmuted into the actual soul of Christ—(his flesh and his blood) for sacrifice afresh in each celebration of the mass.

Whatever may have been true in the remote past, assuredly our Catholic friends can no longer claim that all the purity, all the faithfulness to God, all the sanctity of life amongst believers in Christ are to be found in her communion. St. Paul declares, "If any man have not the Spirit of Christ he is none of his." Surely all Christians admit this standard and the correctness of the Apostle's teaching. Hence the ignoring and setting aside of all creeds and barriers which have heretofore hindered the Unity of the Church of Christ might be possible. Thus the first Catholic objection might easily be removed in favor of Federation, or, better still, in favor of Union. As our Episcopalian friends fail to prove that the apostolic succession to ordination gave either greater wisdom or more grace to their clergy than to other ministers of the Gospel, might not our Catholic friends reasonably admit the same?

The second claim that Papacy is God's kingdom, that the popes reign successively as Christ's vicegerent, should not be difficult for Catholics of our day to lay aside. However strongly it was held in the dark past it is surely little appreciated by Catholics today. No longer do the popes dominate the civil rulers of Christendom.

And no longer do the people consider it wise that they should do so. More and more the masses appreciate the fact that the original kingdom of earth was given to Father Adam and that mankind as his children are the natural heirs of the inheritance. More and more the masses demand congresses, parliaments, reichstags and dumas. And more and more do they demand that these shall reflect the sentiments of the people in civil and religious matters. The day of the popes and of kings in which the people believed that popes and kings were divinely appointed to rule them with divine authority has gone by. General intelligence has taught mankind that it is a mistake to suppose that one God-appointed king and kingdom were divinely appointed to wipe another divinely appointed king and kingdom off the face of the earth. Hence popes and kings now admit that they reign by a popular sufferance, and their appeals for money, for armies and navies, is no longer on the score that they were divinely instructed to obliterate each other, but on the score of self-defense.

This claim, however, wholly destroys the argument that we are now or ever in the past have been under Christ's Kingdom, either direct or through the popes. Neither now nor at any other time in the world's history has there been a reign of righteousness such as the Scriptures declare Christ's Kingdom shall be. May we not, then, with good grace—Catholics and Protestants—admit that neither our Catholic popes, emperors and kings, nor our Protestant kings, emperors and heads of churches are reigning with any divine authority manifest to human judgment? Let us humbly admit the nonsense of the legends on our coins, Catholic and Protestant, to the effect that kings and popes reign by the grace of God—by divine appointment. Let us rather say that they came into power through the exercise of brute force and in a time of common public ignorance. Nor by this do we mean any disrespect to the governments of today—rather we have shown that today the people are ruling through their congresses, parliaments, reichstags, etc., and that the kings and emperors are mere figureheads of power, more or less useful and dependent upon the good will of their people.

If it be asked how we shall account for the period of the dark ages and autocratic and devilish misrule, our reply would be to point to the Apostle's words. He declares that Satan is the god or ruler of this world, who now operates through the disobedient—through those not in harmony with God, who constitute the vast majority in Christendom and elsewhere. And we remind you that our Lord Jesus also spoke of Satan as being the prince of this world or age (John xii, 31), and of himself as the Prince or Ruler of the coming age, the Millennial age (John xviii, 36).

Ah, yes! the sooner both Catholics and Protestants admit what they and all the world now see, the better—namely, that for a long time our great Adversary held us in a bondage of ignorance and superstition, in getting free from which many bright minds have reacted towards infidelity, be-

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is no "cure-all" humbug, but is made for just one purpose—to cure the weaknesses, painful disorders and irregularities of the womanly organism. It is

THE ONE REMEDY for these ailments, sold by druggists, devised and gotten up by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in treating woman's peculiar diseases and is carefully adapted to work in harmony with her delicate organization, by an experienced and skilled specialist in her maladies.

THE ONE REMEDY for woman's ailments, sold by druggists, which contains neither alcohol (which to most women is the rankest poison) or other injurious or habit-forming drugs.

THE ONE REMEDY for women, the composition of which is so perfect and good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient, in plain English on its outside bottle-wrapper, and attest the correctness of the same under oath—thus taking its users into their full confidence, and warranting physicians in prescribing it in their worst cases, which they do very largely.

It is foolish as well as dangerous to take medicine the composition of which you know nothing. Therefore, don't let a dishonest druggist prevail on you to accept a secret nostrum for this professionally approved medicine of KNOWN COMPOSITION. Every ingredient in its make-up has the strongest indorsement of the leading medical men of all the several schools of practice. Send postal card request for free Booklet of same.

Every woman may write fully and confidentially to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and may be sure that her case will receive careful, conscientious, confidential consideration, and that the best medical advice in the world will be given to her, absolutely free.

In addition to this free advice, Dr. Pierce will send a fine French cloth-bound copy of his great 1000-page book, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser," to any woman who will send 31 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They work in harmony with "Favorite Prescription" when needed as a gentle laxative. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

cause they did not see that many of the teachings of the past, both Catholic and Protestant, were not only irrational, but most positively unscriptural teachings of men, and, as St. Paul declared, "doctrines of demons" (1 Timothy, iv, 1).

Not Vice-Gerent Christ.

In view of the foregoing, in view of the fact that the Divine titles of all kings and emperors are now abrogated, papacy need feel no disgrace to her cause in similarly abrogating the claim that the popes reign as the representatives of Christ or have authority so to do. Indeed, such a claim is more safely denied than held, for in the light of our day papacy's best friends can not look into the past and point with pride to any achievement as properly representing the reign of the Prince of Peace—Immanuel. In the light of the present, Catholics and Protestants, of every shade, should rejoice to join in the Lord's prayer, "Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." Surely, this is what all saints of every denomination should desire and pray for and labor for.

Not that we can hope to bring it to pass ourselves, however. Nearly nineteen centuries of effort show to the contrary. Even our last century of great missionary endeavor, Catholic and Protestant, prove this. United States statistics show that in the year 1800 there were six hundred millions of heathens, and in the year 1900 their numbers had doubled—there were twelve hundred millions of heathens. While continuing our exertions on behalf of the heathens abroad and at home, let us tie our faith to the apostles words and "wait for God's Son from heaven" (1 Thessalonians i, 10).

At the second coming of Christ and the glorification of "His elect," His saints, gathered from all denominations, Catholic and Protestant, and some from outside of all of them, only then will the glorious reign of Christ and the church begin. Only then will the Spiritual Seed of Abraham be complete and the work of blessing the unregenerate world begin—the Millennial kingdom work, the overthrow of Satan and his empire, the scattering of darkness, ignorance and superstition which he fostered, the flooding of the earth with the light of the knowledge of the glory of God, the restoration of natural Israel to Divine favor, the bringing in of everlasting righteousness through a mental, physical and moral uplift. Whoever then shall refuse all these blessings and privileges shall be destroyed from among the people. Thus, eventually, in the close of the Millennium, God's will shall be "done on earth even as it is done in heaven," as fully, as completely. This is the "kingdom of God's dear Son," for which we wait and pray. And however good or bad other kingdoms, temporal or spiritual, have been, we need no longer consider them substitutes for this one, which shall be the "desire of all nations" (Haggai ii, 7).

Trans-Substantiation, Masses, Purgatory.

We are free to admit that the Catholic doctrines of trans-substantiation, masses and purgatory would be difficult for our Catholic friends to abandon for the sake of federation or for any other reason. Nevertheless, we believe that in the light of our day there is more to be earned upon these important doctrines. Without agreeing with these doctrines, without claiming Catholic affiliation, let me here say that the Catholic doctrine of purgatory, which lies at the foundation of these three, is in many respects more rational than our Protestant doctrine of eternal torture. It would surely be more God-like to provide some way of escape for the millions of humanity than to leave thousands of millions uselessly in untellable anguish to all eternity. However, the Lord willing, it is my intention to discuss this subject in a general mass meeting of all christian people of all denominations on Sunday, March 6. So many of you as desire to attend will be welcomed on that occasion. We will then seek for the Scriptural explanation of these doctrines—purgatory and hell.

Summing up, then, we find that Lutherans would have nothing to lose by federation, nothing to surrender, except a little pride. Episcopalians, likewise, will find federation to cost them little. They can well afford to join the federation, especially upon terms upon which they insist—the recognition of apostolic succession. And this they can afford to concede in its very mildest form, realizing that it has never specially advantaged them in any way and is impossible of demonstration, in view of the fact that the Scriptures declare that there are but twelve apostles of the Lamb and symbolically show only a twelve-star crown to the church during this age and only twelve foundations to the New Jerusalem—the church in glory. How, then, could bishops either possess or give apostolic blessings? (Rev. xii, 1; xxi, 14).

Omitting the Catholic church, being assured by the Scriptures that she will not be a member of the federation, we conclude by advising the Protestant christian communions discussed today not to be content with federation, but to go the entire length of the union, dropping all of their pet ideas and acknowledging as fellow christians and fellow members of the body of Christ—the church—all who acknowledge Jesus as their Savior, their Redeemer, and who turn from the ways of sin and to the best of their ability walk in the paths of righteousness, and who make full consecration of themselves to the Lord. These are and ever should be one, in the most absolute sense possible, both now and beyond the veil.
